Shanghai Municipal Council.

POLICE FORCE,
(DETECTIVE BRANCH)

October 30th 1916

Sir,

The payment of repatriation funds was continued on the 28th inst when 27 groups were dealt with. There are still 36 small groups who have not yet been paid and they have been told that they will receive the money on application at the Military Governor. Representatives of these men have interviewed Yu Ya Ching 虞雅清 who asked for the list of names which he promised to forward to the Military Governor.

Lieu Ta Nyi 柳大年 one of the minor rebel leaders absconded on the 29th inst with the repatriation money issued to him for distribution among his followers. It is reported that he has gone to Hsuchowfu to join the army of General Chang Hsun.

Admiral Tsao Kya Ziang 曹嘉祥 the Vice Minister of the Navy is holding an enquiry at the Marine Headquarters re: the sinking of the s.s. Hsinyu, a transport, in May last.

A military conference was held at the Arsenal on the 28th inst to consider whether or not the troops now stationed around Shanghai should be transferred to some other place. It was decided after some discussion that the whole of the garrison will remain at Shanghai for the present.

Your Obedient Servant,

Chief Detective Inspector.

Captain Superintendent of Police.
